SABLE

Sable is Maye's most devoted companion. She is a chocolate brown cougar. Maye found her many years ago just outside her tiny village. Early one morning, Maye was out playing with the birds and following them into the woods. They spoke to her about the events of the forest from the evening before. As Maye rested on an old tree trunk she heard a faint noise.

She listened more closely. It was coming from inside the fallen tree. It was a soft, meowing noise – like that of a kitten. With great excitement she reached in to the trunk. She felt something soft, warm and furry. Slowly, she pulled out a little kitten. But this was not your normal kitten. It was baby cougar cub who was still wet from last night's rain. She lifted the cub and spoke softly. "Oh hi little one. What are you doing here? Where is your mom?"

Maye looked to the birds she had been following. The birds told the sad story of how hunters had killed the mother a few days before. With tears in her eyes, Maye picked up the little cub and spoke to it. "You are a beautiful, chocolate brown. How unusual. I will call you Sable. And from this day forward I will take care of you. Do not be afraid."

With Sable's help, Maye further developed her ability to communicate with the animals. All animals - of the earth, the air and water. Sable explained to Maye the ways of the animals of the forest and their unique capabilities and histories. Sable grew to be a strong, healthy cat. She is quiet and powerful. She says very little. She watches. She observes. This is her power.

All of the animals of the forest are in awe of the power that Sable commands through her silence. "But do not be fooled," they say behind Sable's back. "She is a fierce fighter when called upon to protect those who are being threatened".
